 DIANE P BOSIA
 MGR - VOTER REGISTRATION

To whom it may concern,

During my sophomore year at Cal U of Pennsylvania, I inadvertently signed up to vote during a "get voters to the poll drive". I was not aware at that time that legal aliens were not permitted to vote. I only did so as part of the "drive" on campus to get college students registered. I was not asked to show any identification other than my college ID. At the time, I do not recall being asked if I was a citizen nor do I remember any indication of that on the application that I signed. I have never denied the fact that I was not a US citizen and I find it unusual that the application was processed as such. When the voter's registration card came in the mail, I did vote in the 2004 election, I however understand now that that was wrong and I am very sorry.

I have been in the USA since I was 5 years old and I love this country and would do anything I could to defend it, and be an upstanding citizen, so I am willing to accept the consequences that I have incurred. Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to explain myself, because that's one of the reasons why the USA is so great.

Sincerely,

Alister J
