As per our conversation, three documents are enclosed which were provided to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) in support of an application for U.S. benefits. The following documents are enclosed:

1. Letter from Allegheny County Voter Registration (not on letterhead and not signed)
2. Letter from Allegheny County on Elections Division letterhead
3. Copy of Pennsylvania Voter Registration Application for Beulah

If you could please verify the authenticity of the documents it would be much appreciated.

Dear Sirs,

Beulah I. [redacted] came into our office to cancel her voter registration. She wrote an explanation of how she was fraudulently registered after having her wallet stolen with her identification enclosed. We looked into her registration record and found that she was registered as Beulah J. [redacted] through a voter registration drive.

Many of the forms we have received via this method have been suspicious and have resulted in investigations.

We have checked our records to make sure that Tina I. [redacted] and Beulahbertha I. [redacted] are not names that have been used to register in Allegheny County.

If you have any questions please contact our office at 412-350-4510.

Sincerely,

Allegheny County Voter Registration
